

Internet access via WLAN will be available on site. Network SSID and login information will be provided at the beginning of the conference.

Attendees whose home institutions participate in eduroam are strongly encouraged to sign up with their home institution for an eduroam account. This will also allow you to access the Internet at all other eduroam institutions worldwide (see here for a map of all participating institutions in Europe) without any further administrative overhead.